Welcome Message

Welcome to the Land of Morning Calm

I am honored to welcome you all to the 12th World Congress of WAPR in Seoul 2015.

In the history of WAPR, this will be the first world congress of WAPR in East Asia Nov 2-5, 2015. During the last decade, we have witnessed enormous development of psychosocial rehabilitation and community mental health in this region but not so many things were heard in other part of the world. So this world congress will be the good playground to exchange knowledge, experience of psychosocial rehabilitation practices between mental health professionals, consumers, and related people from East and West. The main theme of Seoul World Congress will be “Beyond the Tradition, Create New Paradigm of Care”

I hope you come to Seoul to enjoy not only various topic of the congress, but also rising new culture of Korea here in Seoul.

Looking forward to seeing all of you in Seoul.

Afzal Javed, M.D.

Chairman of the Congress

About Seoul

Seoul is one of the world's best-connected cities. With two international airports and an extensive airport-to-city transportation network, Seoul has all the resources to welcome large numbers of visitors from all over the world. Seoul is a fast-moving modern metropolis and one of the largest cities in the world. Home to over 10 million citizens, it is a friendly city that is easy to get around. Seoul has four distinct seasons, which means the landscape changes considerably throughout the year. Seoul's well-equipped convention facilities combined with the support and services of the Seoul Convention Bureau are contributing factors to placing Seoul in the ranks of leading convention cities.
